

Islip, NY – The Islip Town Board recently honored women who have achieved personal and public success at the annual Women's History Celebration at Town Hall.

The town board recognized women who have demonstrated impressive community service capacities. The honorees received proclamations for such work as involvement in local civic groups, organizing food pantries and outreach services, volunteering in local fire departments, and serving as exemplary teachers and leaders in the Town of Islip.
